AND THEN THERE WERE NONE

By Agatha Christie

First Published in an English periodical during June-July of 1939. It was first published as a book in November 1939. The story was meant to be contemporaneous, the events of the story taking place in August of 1939. (Interesting that the world turned on its head September 1, 1939 with Hitler's blitzkrieg unleashed on Poland.)

LIST OF MAIN CHARACTERS (Alphabetical)

Edward George Armstrong	a Harley Street doctor
William Henry Blore	a former police inspector, now a private investigator
Emily Caroline Brent	an elderly, pious spinster
Vera Elizabeth Claythorne	a sports mistress at a girls' school and former governess
Philip Lombard	a soldier of fortune
John Gordon MacArthur	a retired World War I general
Anthony James Marston	a wealthy and irresponsible young man
Ethel Rogers	the cook and housekeeper, and Thomas Rogers's wife
Thomas Rogers	the butler and Ethel Rogers's husband
Lawrence John Wargrave	a retired criminal judge ("Justice Wargrave")